All dogs boarded at Olympia Kennels are boarded without liability for loss or damage from disease, death, running away, theft, fire, injury to persons, other dogs or property by said dog or other unavoidable causes, diligence, and care have been exercised by Olympia Kennels.

If a dog becomes ill, the owner shall be notified as soon as possible. If the owner cannot be informed immediately, or if the state of the dog's health demands quick action, Olympia Kennels has the right to call a veterinarian of the kennel's choice or administer medicine or give other advisable action, within Olympia Kennels' discretion and judgment; and such expenses shall be paid promptly by the owner of the pet dog.

All services for boarding, any damage done to the premises by the dog, and any professional care must be paid in full before the dog is released. In the event that a dog is left at Olympia Kennels for more than 15 days after the estimated pick up date, unless an extension has been agreed upon by both parties, Olympia Kennels has the right to sell or dispose of the dog after having sent a registered letter to the owner at the above address not less than 10 days before the date of such intended sale or disposal, and no further notice shall be deemed necessary.

The owner represents that he/she is the legal owner/guardian of dog and the dog has not been exposed to rabies within the last 30 days.
